

THE FREEDOM OF INFORMATION BILL, 2005

ARRANGEMENT OF CLAUSES

Clause

PART I—PRELIMINARY

- 1—Short title and commencement.
- 2—Interpretation.

PART II—RIGHT TO KNOW

- 3—Objectives of the Act.
- 4—Right to information.
- 5—Act to override inconsistent laws.
- 6—Exempt information.
- 7—Proactive disclosure.

PART III—APPLICATIONS FOR INFORMATION

- 8—Public information officers.
- 9—Submission of applications.
- 10—Processing of applications.
- 11—Transfer of applications.
- 12—Providing access to information.
- 13—Partial disclosure.
- 14—Rejection of application.
- 15—Fees.
- 16—Correction of information.

PART IV—THE INFORMATION COMMISSIONER

- 17—Appointment of Information Commissioner.
- 18—Office of the Information Commissioner.
- 19—Removal of Information Commissioner.

PART V—APPEALS, OFFENCES AND PENALTIES

- 20—Internal review on first appeal.
 - 21—Appeal to the Information Commissioner.
 - 22—Appeal to the High Court.
-

- 23—Burden of proof.
- 24—Offences and penalties.

PART VI—MISCELLANEOUS

- 25—Whistleblower protection.
- 26—Protection of bona fide actions.
- 27—Management of records.
- 28—Own motion investigations.
- 29—Promotion of the Act.
- 30—Annual reporting.
- 31—Regulations.
- 32—Repeal of Cap 187

A Bill for

An Act of Parliament to enable the public to obtain access to information in the possession of the Government, public authorities and certain categories of private bodies, to enable persons to have inaccurate personal information relating to them in the possession of such bodies corrected, to establish systems and processes to promote proactive publication and dissemination of information; and for connected purposes

ENACTED by the Parliament of Kenya as follows -

PART I—PRELIMINARY

Short title and commencement.

1. This Act may be cited as the Freedom of Information Act, 2005 and shall come into force six months from the date on which it is assented to by the President.

Interpretation

2. In this Act unless the context otherwise requires;

"access" includes the right to examine, to look at, peruse, inspect, obtain, copy or procure any information;

“appellate authority” means the head of a public authority from which information is requested under this Act, or his delegate, or any other person to whom under the administrative arrangements of that authority an appeal from the decision of a public information officer is to be referred;

“information” includes any documentary material regardless of its physical form or characteristics, and any copy thereof, any record, correspondence, memorandum, book, plan, map, drawing, film, microfiche, diagram, pictorial or graphic work, data, photograph, recording, audio or video-tape, machine readable material and any other information held in electronic form whether on computer disk or tape or in the memory of a computer or other device, anything that contains information, letters, reports, studies, records, minutes, statistics, directives, instructions, circulars, memoranda, practice notes, opinions, decisions in writing whether in form of sound, visual recordings or computerized data, any material recorded or stored by any means including tape, computer, or other device and any material subsequently derived from information so recorded or stored whether manually, mechanically or electronically and anything that is part or a copy, in any form, of any of the foregoing or is a combination of two or more of the foregoing;

“public authority” includes -

- (a) the President and the staff of the President;
- (b) the National Assembly, including members of Parliament and staff of the National Assembly;
- (c) the Judiciary;
- (d) all Government ministries, departments or agencies at all levels of Government;
- (e) any body which -
 - (i) is established by virtue of the President’s powers or by or under an Act of Parliament or an Order made under an Act of Parliament or which is established in any other way by a Minister of the government or by a government department or public authority;
 - (ii) receives any part of its revenues directly from money provided by Parliament or from a levy authorized by an enactment or fee or charge of any other description so authorized;
- (f) any body or authority subject to examination by the Controller and Auditor General;
- (g) a statutory corporation;
- (h) all local authorities established under the Local Government Act;
- (i) any private body or authority or class of private bodies or authorities having custody or control of information required for the exercise or protection of any right and designated by the Minister as a public authority for purposes of this Act.

Cap 265

PART II — RIGHT TO KNOW

Objectives of the Act

- 3. The objects of this Act are -
- (a) to promote open government through maximum disclosure of information;
 - (b) to facilitate the right of all persons to have access to information held by public authorities and private bodies in certain circumstances and to require that public authorities proactively publish and disseminate as much information as possible to the public in a useful form and manner in order to further the public interest by promoting-

- (i) public participation in democratic and development processes;
- (ii) greater accountability of public and private authorities
- (iii) better informed discussions and the free interchange of opinions;
- (c) to ensure that persons are given reasons for decisions taken by public authorities which affect them;
- (d) to facilitate and encourage the disclosure of information, promptly and at the lowest reasonable cost; and
- (e) to enable individuals to see information held by public authorities about their affairs and to ensure that it is accurate.

Right to information

4. Every person has the right to access information held or under the control of a public authority.

Act to override inconsistent laws.

5. (1) Subject to section 6, the right to access information under section 4 shall apply notwithstanding any statutory restriction or prohibition on the disclosure of information or any common law restriction other than one contained in an order of the court.

(2) Nothing in this Act limits or otherwise restricts the disclosure of information pursuant to any other law, policy or practice.

Exempt information.

6. (1) Despite section 4, information, hereinafter in this Act referred to as “exempt information” may be withheld where disclosure of such information is reasonably likely -

- (a) to constitute a clear and present danger to the national security of Kenya;
- (b) to impede the due process of law or the ends of justice; or to endanger the safety or life of any person or the safety of a rare or endangered species;
- (c) to involve the unwarranted invasion of the privacy of an individual other than the applicant or the person on whose behalf an application has with proper authority been made;
- (d) by disclosing commercially confidential information relating to a public authority; or supplied to or obtained by the public authority from a third party, to cause unreasonable damage to the competitive or negotiating position of that authority or party;
- (e) to damage the economy by the premature release of information on the proposed introduction, abolition or variation of any tax, duty, interest rate or instrument of economic management; or to impede the assessment or collection of any tax or duty;
- (f) to damage a public authority’s ability to give adequate and judicious consideration to a matter concerning which no final decision has been taken and which remains the subject of active consideration; or
- (g) to damage a public authority’s position in any actual or contemplated legal proceedings by revealing the legal advice which it received in anticipation of or connection with such proceedings;

(2) Notwithstanding anything in sub-section (1), a public authority shall disclose information where the democratic interest in disclosure outweighs the harm to protected interests.

(3) For the purposes of sub-section (2), in considering the democratic interest, particular regard shall be had to the need to -

- (a) promote accountability of public authorities to the public;

- (b) ensure that the expenditure of public funds is subject to effective oversight
- (c) promote informed public debate;
- (d) keep the public adequately informed about the existence of any danger to public health or safety or to the environment;
- (e) ensure that any statutory authority with regulatory responsibilities is adequately discharging its functions;

Proactive disclosure

7. (1) A public authority shall, taking any necessary steps to avoid the disclosure of exempt information -

- (a) publish and update within such intervals in each year as the Minister may prescribe -
 - (i) the particulars of its organization, functions and duties;
 - (ii) the powers and duties of its officers and employees;
 - (iii) the procedure followed in the decision making process, including channels of supervision and accountability;
 - (iv) the norms set by it for the discharge of its functions;
 - (v) any guidance used by the authority in relation to its dealings with the public or with corporate bodies, including the rules, regulations, instructions, manuals and records, held by it or under its control or used by its employees for discharging its functions;
 - (vi) a guide sufficient to enable any person wishing to apply for information under this Act to identify the classes of information held by it, the subjects to which they relate, the location of any indexes to be consulted by any person;
 - (vii) the particulars of any arrangement that exists for consultation with, or representation by, the members of the public in relation to the formulation of its policy or implementation thereof;
 - (viii) a statement of the boards, councils, committees and other bodies consisting of two or more persons constituted as its part or for the purpose of advising it with information as to whether meetings of those boards, councils, committees and other bodies are open to the public, or the minutes of such meetings are accessible to the public;
 - (ix) a directory of its officers and employees;
 - (x) the monthly remuneration received by each of its officers and employees, including the system of compensation as provided in its regulations

- (xi) the budget allocated to each of its agencies, indicating the particulars of all plans, proposed expenditures and reports on disbursements made;
 - (xii) the manner of execution of subsidy programmes, including the amounts allocated and the details of beneficiaries of such programmes;
 - (xiii) particulars of concessions, permits or authorisations granted by it;
 - (xiv) details in respect of the information, available to or held by it, reduced in an electronic form;
 - (xv) the particulars of facilities available to citizens for obtaining information, including the working hours of a library or reading room, if maintained for public use;
 - (xvi) the names, designations, contact details and other particulars of its public information officers, appellate authorities and the particulars and contract details of the Information Commissioner;
 - (xvii) a list of all applications under this Act received by the public authority, including an indexed register containing copies of records released in response to requests under this Act other than records relating to the personal affairs of the applicant;
 - (xviii) such other information as may be prescribed by the Minister;
- (b) publish all relevant facts while formulating important policies or announcing the decisions which affect the public;
 - (c) provide to any person the reasons for any decision taken by it in relation to that person;
 - (d) before initiating any project, or formulating any policy, scheme, programme or law, publish or communicate to the public in general or to the persons likely to be affected thereby in particular, the facts available to it or to which it has reasonable access which in its opinion should be known to them in the best interests of natural justice and promotion of democratic principles.
 - (e) upon signing, public authorities shall publish all contracts entered into, detailing at a minimum for each contract-
 - (i) the public works, goods acquired or rented, and the contracted service, including any sketches, scopes of service and terms of reference;
 - (ii) the contract sum;
 - (iii) the name of the provider, contractor or individual to whom

- the contract has been granted;
- (iv) the periods within which the contract shall be completed.

(2) It is the duty of every public authority to take steps in accordance with the requirements of sub-section (1) to provide as much information proactively to the public at regular intervals through various media of communication so that the public have minimum resort to the use of this Act to obtain information.

(3) All materials shall be disseminated taking into consideration the cost, local language and the most effective method of communication in that local area and the information should be easily accessible, to the extent possible and be available free or at cost, taking into account the medium used.

(4) At a minimum, the material referred to in sub-section (1) shall be made available -

- (a) for inspection by any person without charge;
- (b) by supplying a copy to any person on request for which a reasonable charge to cover the costs of copying and supplying them may be made, and
- (c) on the Internet, provided that the materials are held by the authority in electronic form and it is practicable for it to so make them available.

PART III - APPLICATIONS FOR INFORMATION

Public information officers

8. (1) Subject to sub-sections (3) and (4), a public authority shall appoint as many public information officers in all offices or units as they have at the local, district, provincial and national levels as necessary to enable it to provide information to persons requesting information under this Act.

(2) Where for any reason, a public authority has not appointed a public information officer, the head of the public authority shall for purposes of this Act be deemed to be the public information officer of that public authority.

(3) A public information officer shall be the principal contact person within a public body to deal with requests from persons seeking information from the public body and shall take all reasonable steps to assist any person seeking to exercise any right under this Act.

(4) A public information officer shall be of sufficient rank within the public authority to be empowered to make binding decisions in relation to information disclosure under this Act.

(5) Notwithstanding sub-section (3), it is the duty of every public officer to assist a person seeking information under this Act and no public officer may refuse to receive a request for information on the ground only that he is not a public information officer.

(6) A public officer other than a public information officer to whom a request for information is made under sub-section (5), shall refer the person seeking information to a public information officer, and if no such officer is immediately available, shall receive the request and issue a receipt therefor, indicating thereon his name and designation and that the request is to be forwarded to the appropriate public information officer.

Submission of applications.

9. (1) An application for access to information shall be made in English or Kiswahili by email, fax, post, telephone or by any other medium provided that the applicant provides -
- (a) contact details; and
 - (b) sufficient particulars for the public information officer or any other official to understand what information is being requested.

(2) A public information officer who receives an oral request shall, subject to section 11, reduce the request to writing, including his name and designation, and shall give a copy thereof to the applicant.

(3) Notwithstanding sub-section (1), an application may, if the applicant is unable to communicate in English or Kiswahili, be made in any other local language in use in Kenya, and in such event the public information officer to whom the application is made shall arrange for a translation of the application to English or Kiswahili.

(4) Where a request for information does not comply with sub-section (1), the public information officer who receives the request shall, subject to section 11, render such reasonable assistance, free of charge, as may be necessary to enable the request to comply with that sub-section.

(5) A request referred to in sub-section (4), shall not be deemed to have been rejected while assistance is being rendered.

(6) A public authority may not inquire into a person's identity on account of a request for access to any information, or inquire as to the purpose of the person's request.

(7) A public authority may prescribe a form for requests for information, but any such form must not be such as to unreasonably delay requests or place an undue burden upon applicants, and no application may be rejected on the ground only that the applicant has not used the prescribed form.

(8) A public authority which receives a request for information shall provide the applicant with a receipt documenting the request.

Processing of applications.

10. (1) Subject to sub-section (3), a public information officer shall make a decision on an application within fifteen working days of receipt of the application -

Provided that where the information sought concerns the life or liberty of a person, the information shall be provided within forty-eight hours of receipt of the request:

Provided further that where an application is especially complex or relates to a large volume of information, the public information officer may request the Information Commissioner for an extension of time of no more than twenty working days.

(2) The public information officer may seek the assistance of any other public officer as he considers necessary for the proper discharge of his duties and such other officer shall render the required assistance.

(3) In the case of information of key significance for the security of Kenya, the Minister may by Regulations prescribe that only a particular authority shall be entitled to determine applications relating to access to such information.

(4) Subject to sub-section (1), where sub-section (3) applies, the application shall be forwarded to the relevant authority and the applicant notified as soon as possible but in any event no later than five days from date of receipt of the application.

Transfer of applications

11. (1) A public information officer may, not later than five days from the date of receipt of an application, transfer the application, or any relevant part of it, to another public authority, if the information requested is held by that other public authority.

(2) Where an application is transferred under sub-section (1), a public information officer shall inform the applicant immediately but in any event no later than five days from date of receipt of the application, about such transfer.

Providing access to information.

12. (1) Where a decision is taken to provide the information requested, a public information officer shall send the applicant a written notice within fifteen working days of receipt of the application, advising -

- (a) that the application has been granted;
- (b) the details of any fees or further fees to be paid for access, together with the calculations made to arrive at the amount of the fee;
- (c) the method of payment of such fees;
- (d) the proposed process for accessing the information once the payment is made; and
- (e) that an appeal may be made to the Information Commissioner in respect of the amount of fees required or the form of access proposed to be provided.

(2) Subject to section 15, upon receipt of the requisite fee, a public information officer shall provide the information to the applicant or permit the relevant inspection immediately but in any event no later than two working days from the date of receipt of such payment.

(3) Any information which may be made accessible to an applicant shall be produced forthwith, or as soon as possible, at the place where it is kept, for inspection, to any person who desires to have access to it in such a manner that it can be read, listened to, or otherwise comprehended, or in the form in which it is held unless the applicant requests that it be made available in another form and it is practicable to do so, and such information may also be copied, reproduced, or used for conversion to a sound transmission.

- (4) Where information is to be provided under this section, and the applicant requests that access be given in either English or Kiswahili, the information shall be given to the applicant in that language –
- (a) forthwith, if the information already exists in that language; or
 - (b) within a reasonable time if the head of the concerned public authority considers it to be in the public interest to cause a translation to be prepared.

Partial disclosure

13. Where a request for information relates to exempt information, access to any information which is not exempt shall, to the extent it may reasonably severed from the rest of the information, be provided to the applicant.

Rejection of application

14. (1) Where a request is rejected or partially rejected on the basis of section 6, the public information officer concerned shall send the applicant a written notice within fifteen working days of receipt of the application, specifying-

- (a) the name and designation of the person making the decision;
- (b) the reasons for the decision, including the relevant provisions of the Act relied upon, findings on any material questions of fact and the material on which those findings were based;
- (c) the applicant's rights with respect to review of the decision, including the particulars of the appellate authority, time limits and the procedure.

(2) Where any requested information has not been provided within the specified period under this Act, the request shall be deemed to have been refused.

Fees

15. (1) No fee may be charged in relation to the submission of an application.

(2) A public authority from which an application for information has been made, shall make no charge to the applicant for the provision of the information other than a reasonable charge for access which shall not exceed the actual costs of making any copies of such information and if applicable, supplying them to the applicant.

(3) Any fees imposed should not be so high as to defeat the objectives of this Act.

(4) A public information officer may waive any fee where payment of the fee may cause financial hardship to the applicant or where the disclosure of the information is in the public interest.

(5) Notwithstanding anything in this section, the person making the request for information shall be provided with the information free of charge where a public authority fails to comply with the time limits in this Part.

(6) The fee regime for all public authorities shall be prescribed in Regulations made by the Minister.

Correction of information

16. (1) At the request of the applicant a public authority shall, at its own expense correct any information held by it relating to the applicant which is inaccurate, incomplete or irrelevant and is adverse to the applicant's interests.

- (2) A request under this section shall be made in writing to the public authority responsible for the maintenance of the record system containing the inaccurate, incomplete or irrelevant information and shall –
- (a) state that it is a request to amend certain personal information relating to the applicant;
 - (b) specify the personal information that is to be amended indicating how such information is inaccurate, incomplete or irrelevant, and how it is adverse to the applicant's interests; and
 - (c) specify the remedy sought by the applicant.

PART IV - THE INFORMATION COMMISSIONER

Appointment of Information

17. (1) The President shall nominate a candidate or candidates for the post of

Commissioner

Information Commissioner from persons qualified in terms of sub-section (2), and Parliament shall if satisfied as to the suitability of the nominee, confirm such nomination for appointment by the President.

- (3) The person appointed to the office of Information Commissioner shall be a person who -
 - (a) is publicly regarded as a person who can make impartial judgements;
 - (b) has sufficient knowledge of the workings of Government;
 - (c) does not have any criminal conviction or any criminal charges pending against him;
 - (d) is not an undischarged bankrupt;
 - (e) is not a serving public officer or a Member of Parliament, or an office bearer in a political party; and
 - (f) does not hold any other public office unless otherwise provided for in this Act.
- (4) The Information Commissioner may serve a maximum of two three-year terms and shall not during the term of office hold any other public office.

Office of the Information
Commissioner

18. (1) The Information Commissioner shall be independent of the control, direction or interference of any other person or authority, other than the courts.

(2) The Information Commissioner shall have budget autonomy in that the Office of the Information Commissioner shall be treated under a separate line item in the preparation of the national Budget.

(3) The Information Commissioner shall recruit staff in accordance with open and fair recruitment processes.

Removal of Information
Commissioner

19. (1) A person holding the Office of Information Commissioner may be removed from office before expiry of term only for inability to exercise the functions of the office, whether arising from infirmity of body or mind or any other cause, or for misbehaviour.

(2) The Information Commissioner shall be removed from the office by the President if the question of his removal has been referred to a Tribunal appointed under this section and the Tribunal has so recommended.

- (3) The President shall appoint the Tribunal consisting of a chairman and four other members from among persons -
- (i) who hold or have held the office of judge of the High Court or Court of Appeal; or
 - (ii) who are qualified to be appointed as judges of the High Court.

PART V -
APPEALS, OFFENCES AND PENALTIES

Internal review on first appeal.

20. (1) Any person who does not receive a decision within the time limits specified in this Part or who is aggrieved by a decision of the public information officer may lodge an appeal to the appellate authority.

- (2) The appellate authority shall dispose of complaints within no more than ten working days.
- (3) Where no decision is received within the time limits set by this Act, the complaint shall be deemed to have been rejected and an appeal may be lodged with the Information Commissioner.
- (4) Where the public information officer and the appellate authority are in reality the same person, a complaint may be made directly to the Information Commissioner.

Appeal to the Information Commissioner.

21. (1) Subject to sub-section (2), an appeal may be made to the Information Commissioner by any person -

- (a) who has been unable to submit an application to a public information officer or a complaint to an appellate authority, either because none has yet been appointed or because they refused to accept his application or complaint;
- (b) who has been refused access to any information requested under this Act;
- (c) who has not been given a response to a request for information or given access to information within the time limits set out in this Act;
- (d) who has been required to pay a fee which he considers to be

- unreasonable;
 - (e) who believes that he has been given incomplete, misleading or false information; or
 - (f) in respect of any other matter relating to requesting or obtaining access to information under this Act.
- (2) The Information Commissioner shall decline to hear an appeal in relation to any matter in which an appeal may be lodged under section 20 unless before lodging the appeal the complainant has complied with that section.
- (3) The Information Commissioner shall dispose of appeals within no more than twenty working days.
- (4) For the purpose of disposing of an appeal under this Act the Commissioner –
- (a) shall have the same powers as the High Court in respect of attendance and examination of witnesses;
 - (b) may require any Minister, officer or employee of the public authority concerned or any other person who in the Commissioner's opinion is able to provide information or produce records relevant to the appeal to do so;
 - (c) may examine any record to which this Part applies, including any record containing information which is or may be exempt;
 - (d) shall take all reasonable precautions to avoid the disclosure of information which is or may be exempt but may disclose to the appropriate authority any information, including exempt information, which in the Commissioner's opinion indicates the commission of an offence or significant misconduct on the part of any person;
 - (e) may receive and consider any record or information, whether or not it would be admissible in a court of law; and
 - (f) may enter any premises occupied by a public authority and examine or remove any record or material relevant to the investigation.
- (5) No obligation to maintain secrecy or other restriction upon the disclosure of information, whether imposed by an enactment or by any rule of law or otherwise, shall preclude a person from supplying information to the Commissioner for the purpose of an investigation under this section.

- (6) A public authority shall not be entitled, in relation to any investigation by the Commissioner, to any privilege in respect of the production of records or the giving of evidence except as is allowed by law; and anything said or any records produced by a person in the course of such an investigation shall be privileged in the same manner as if it were said or supplied in proceedings in court.
- (7) The Commissioner has the power to make any order -
- (a) requiring a public authority to take such steps as the Commissioner considers necessary to secure compliance with the requirements of this Act, within such period as the order may specify, including -
 - (i) providing access to information, and if so requested, in a particular form;
 - (ii) appointing a public information officer or appellate authority;
 - (iii) publishing or disseminating certain information or categories of information;
 - (iv) making necessary changes to its practices in relation to the maintenance, management and destruction of records;
 - (v) enhancing the provision of training on the right to information for its officials;
 - (vi) providing the Commissioner with an annual report in compliance with section 28;
 - (b) compensating the complainant for any loss or other detriment suffered;
 - (c) imposing any of the penalties provided for in this Act; or
 - (d) rejecting an appeal.
- (8) Decisions of the Information Commissioner are binding on all parties.
- (9) The Information Commissioner shall serve notice of his decision, including any rights of appeal, on both the complainant and the public authority.
- (10) The Information Commissioner shall operate with as little formality as possible.

(11) Hearings before the Commissioner shall be conducted in the manner prescribed under Rules which shall be developed by the Commissioner and published by the Minister.

(12) Where on an appeal to the Information Commissioner, no decision is received within the time limits set by this Act, the complaint shall be deemed to have been rejected and an appeal may be lodged with High Court.

Appeal to the High Court

22. (1) An appeal on the decision of the Information Commissioner lies to the High Court and the decision of the High Court shall be final.

(2) On an appeal on the decision of the Information Commissioner, the High Court may –

- (a) confirm, set aside or vary the decision or order in question;
- (b) exercise any of the powers which could have been exercised by the Information Commissioner in the matter in connection with which the appeal is brought; or
- (c) make such other order as it may consider just.

Burden of proof

23. In any appeal proceedings under this Act, the onus of proving that a denial of a request is justified shall be on the person or body that denied the request.

Offences and penalties

24. (1) A public information officer or other public officer who has duties under this Act and who -

- (a) without reasonable cause, refuses to receive an application for information;
- (b) in bad faith denies a request for information;
- (c) unreasonably delays the provision of access to information;
- (d) knowingly gives incorrect or misleading information; or
- (e) knowingly gives wrong or incomplete information;

commits an offence and is liable –

- (i) if before an appellate authority or the Information Commissioner, to a fine not exceeding one hundred thousand shillings; and
- (ii) if before a court, to a fine not exceeding one hundred thousand shillings and imprisonment for a term not exceeding six months or to both.

- (2) A public officer whose assistance has been sought by a public information officer or other public officer referred to under sub-section (1) for the performance of his duties, may be liable for penalty as prescribed in sub-section (1) jointly with the public information officer or other public officer or severally as may be decided by the appellate authority, the Information Commissioner, or a court.
- (3) Any person who destroys information which at the time it was destroyed was the subject of a request, or of a complaint under this Act; and does so intending to prevent its disclosure in accordance with the requirements of this Act or in circumstances in which it was foreseeable that such disclosure would thereby be prevented, commits an offence and is liable to a fine not exceeding two hundred thousand shillings or imprisonment for a term not exceeding two years or both unless the person can prove that at the time of the alleged offence he did not know and had no reasonable cause to believe that the information was information to which this sub-section applies.
- (4) A person who –
- (a) obstructs the Information Commissioner in the performance of his functions; or
 - (b) commits any act in relation to an investigation by the Information Commissioner which, if that investigation were a proceeding in court, would constitute contempt of court; or
 - (c) fails to comply with an order of the Information Commissioner, commits an offence and the Information Commissioner may certify the offence to a court which may inquire into the matter and, after hearing any witness who may be produced against or on behalf of the person charged with the offence, and after hearing any statement that may be offered in defence, deal with the person in any manner in which a court could deal with the person if he had committed the same offence in relation to the court.
- (5) A person who obstructs any public officer or other authority in the performance of his or its functions under this Act otherwise than as provided under sub-section (5), commits an offence and is liable to a fine not exceeding one hundred thousand shillings or to imprisonment for a term not exceeding six months or to both.

PART VI-
MISCELLANEOUS

Whistleblower protection

25. (1) No person shall be penalized in relation to any employment, profession, voluntary work, contract, membership of an organization, the holding of any office or in any other way, as a result of having made or proposed to make a disclosure of information which he obtained in confidence in the course of that activity if the disclosure is one which, because of the public interest, a court would not restrain.

- (2) Subject to sub-section (3), the provisions of sub-section (1) shall only apply where the person believes on reasonable grounds that the information is accurate
- (3) For the purposes of sub-section (1) and (2), a disclosure which is made to the police or to an appropriate regulatory body shall be deemed to be made in the public interest.
- (4) For the purpose of this section a person is penalized if he is dismissed, discriminated against, made the subject of any reprisal or other form of adverse treatment or is denied any appointment, promotion or advantage that otherwise would have been provided; and the imposition of any such penalty in contravention of this section shall be actionable as a tort.
- (5) Any term of any settlement arising from a claim under this section, insofar as it purports to impose an obligation of confidentiality on any party to the settlement in respect of information which is not inaccurate and which was or was proposed to be disclosed, shall be unenforceable.
- (6) In any proceedings for an offence for contravention of any statutory prohibition or restriction on the disclosure of information it shall be a defence to show that in the circumstances the disclosure was in the public interest, and where the offence is alleged to have been committed by a public servant or Government contractor and involves the disclosure of information obtained by him in his position as such, that the defendant had before making the disclosure complied with the provisions of sub-section (2).

Protection of bona fide actions

26. No suit, prosecution or other legal proceeding shall lie against any person for anything which is in good faith done or intended to be done under or pursuant to this Act.

Management of records

27. (1) Every public authority shall maintain its records in a manner which facilitates the right to information as provided for in this Act.

(2) At a minimum, every public authority shall -

- (a) create and preserve such records as are necessary to document adequately its policies, decisions, procedures, transactions and other activities it undertakes pertinent to the implementation of its mandate;
- (b) ensure that records in its custody, including those held in electronic form, are maintained in good order and condition; and
- (c) within no more than three years from the date that this Act begins to apply to it, computerize its records and information management systems in order to facilitate more efficient access to information.

Own motion investigations 28. The Information Commissioner may initiate an investigation in the absence of a complaint and may continue an investigation even though a complaint has been withdrawn.

Promotion of the Act. 29. The Information Commissioner shall -

- (a) develop and conduct educational programmes to advance the understanding of the public, and in particular, of disadvantaged communities, of this Act and of how to exercise the rights contemplated in this Act;
- (b) encourage public authorities to participate in the development and conduct of programmes referred to in paragraph (a) and to undertake such programmes themselves;
- (c) promote timely and effective dissemination of accurate information by public authorities about their activities; and
- (d) train public information officers of public authorities and produce relevant training materials for use by those authorities.

Annual reporting. 30. (1) The Information Commissioner shall annually lay before Parliament, on or before the first day of October, a report on the implementation of this Act during the previous year.

(2) The relevant Committee of the National Assembly shall consider the report and submit any views, comments and recommendations on it to the National Assembly as soon as practicable following tabling of the report.

(3) Each responsible Ministry or department of Government, in relation to the public authorities within its jurisdiction, shall collect and provide such information to the Information Commissioner as is required to prepare the report under this section, and shall comply with any prescribed requirements concerning the furnishing of that information and the keeping of records for the purposes of this section.

(4) Each report shall, at a minimum, state in respect of the year to which it relates -

- (a) the number of requests made to each public authority;
- (b) the number of decisions to the effect that an applicant was not entitled to access to information pursuant to a request, the provisions of this Act under which these decisions were made

- and the number of times each provision was invoked;
 - (c) the number of appeals received by the Information Commissioner, the nature of the complaints and the outcome of the appeals;
 - (d) particulars of any disciplinary action taken against any public officer in respect of the administration of this Act;
 - (e) the amount of charges collected by each public authority under this Act;
 - (f) any facts which indicate an effort by public authorities to administer and implement the spirit and intention of this Act;
 - (g) recommendations for reform, including recommendations in respect of particular amendments of this Act or other legislation; and
 - (h) any other matter relevant to operationalizing the right to access information, as appropriate.
- (5) The Information Commissioner may from time to time lay before Parliament such other reports on the operation of the Act as the Commissioner thinks fit.

Regulations.

- 31. (1) The Minister may by Regulations make or make further provision for -
- (a) designating any private body or authority or class of bodies or authorities, to be a public authority or public authorities for the purposes of this Act;
 - (b) the manner in which applications under this Act are to be made;
 - (c) the form in which information requested under this Act is to be supplied;
 - (d) the making of applications for personal information by representatives of the individual to whom the information relates;
 - (e) the measures which public authorities shall take in order to assist persons in exercising their rights under this Act;
 - (f) the measures which public authorities shall take to ensure that adequate records are created and maintained by public authorities;
 - (g) the procedures that should be followed by a complainant in asking authority to review any decision or failure to act before a complaint may be made to the Information Commissioner;

- (h) the charges which may be made for the provision of information for commercial purposes;
- (i) a public authority to consult with a third party before giving access to information obtained by it from that party;
- (j) procedures requiring a public authority to ensure that personal information is accurate;
- (k) compensation to be sought by an individual who has suffered damage as a result of the holding of inaccurate information about his personal affairs by a public authority;
- (l) the procedure to be followed by the Information Commissioner in carrying out an investigation;
- (m) the records that public authorities shall be required to keep; and
- (n) the salary and expenses of the Information Commissioner which shall not be less favourable than those paid to a judge of the High Court.

Repeal of Cap 187

32. The Official Secrets Act is repealed.